SWEET AS

FRIDAY, 17 FEBRUARY

Before-Party 6pm | Cinema Doors Open 6.40pm

After-Party until 10pm Unclassified

Directed by Jub Clerc

Written by Jub Clerc and Steve Rodgers Produced by Liz Kearney

Starring Shantae Barnes-Cowan, Mark Coles Smith, Ngaire Pigram, Carlos Sanson Jr, Pedrea Jackson, Mikayla Levy, Andrew Wallace and Tasma Walton

Described as The Breakfast Club meets the Outback, Sweet As follows 16-year-old Murra who is on the verge of lashing out due to problems on the home front. That is, until her policeman uncle curbs her self-destructive behaviour with a lifeline: a “photo-safari for at-risk kids”. Murra isn’t entirely convinced, but she soon joins cantankerous Kylie, happy-go-lucky Elvis, uptight Sean and team leaders Fernando and Mitch on a transformative bus trip through the Pilbara. On the trail, the teens learn about fun, friendship and first crushes, as well as the forces of ‘reality’ that puncture the bubble of youth.

SCREENS WITH WIRNITJ

BLACK COCKATOO CRISIS

DOCUMENTARY

SUNDAY, 19 FEBRUARY

Session Commences 10.30am Unclassified

Directed by Jane Hammond

Written by Jane Hammond and Nicholas Dunlop

Produced by Jane Hammond Narrated by Janine Oxenham

Western Australia's iconic black cockatoos are in crisis. Their numbers have fallen dramatically over the past few decades and all three species in the south-west of WA could become extinct in just 20 years unless something is done to protect their habitats. With the loss of the banksia woodlands on the Swan Coastal Plain to housing, Carnaby's Black Cockatoos have come to depend on the once vast exotic pine plantations on Perth's northern fringe.

This is a story with a Western Australian focus but a universal theme. The world's biodiversity stands at a crossroads with more than 1 million species currently facing extinction. Will we act in time to save them?

SCREENS WITH SAVING WEDGE

D/W Lee Jessamine

P Glenn Raymond Axford

This film is about a small shack settlement located 2 hours north Perth called Wedge Island. A bit like stepping back in time, Wedge Island has no power, no running water, no shops. But it has a vibrant, tight-knit community. This documentary explores the history of the community and their way of life at Wedge Island that has evolved over 70 years.

STEPHANIE DAVIS

Stephanie Davis is a Perth-based producer (Somedae Pictures) who has worked on many feature and short films including Lurking Woods, Tainted Getaway, Undiscovered Country and Jadai: The Broome Brawler. In 2020, Stephanie was nominated for CinefestOZ' Best Filmmaker of the Year for her Antecedents (producer). Stephanie also won an Out There development grant through ScreenWest for the LGBTQIA+ web series, Drag Alien Wrestling. Stephanie most recently produced the web series Love Me Lex.

AARON KAMP

Aaron Kamp's love of filmmaking began in 1993 when he first realised the power of cinema. Following his studies at Curtin University, Aaron began working in the corporate and event video world. With cinematography being his focus at film school, Aaron lensed several short films and assisted on a variety of TV commercials and the feature film Middle Children in 2007. Aaron began directing in 2013 and has since directed six shorts and two features - the most recent being Thorns & Thistles at the End of the World.

Arnold Carter is a self taught writer, director, producer and editor. Arnold has made two features Punchin Darts and Sun Moon & Thalia. Heavily inspired to be a one man crew by films makers such as Robert Rodriguez and John Cassavetes, Arnold has completed his second feature, Sun Moon & Thalia. Self funded, Arnold built the movie set in his back shed and took the streets in a guerrilla style film making fashion for the location shoots to complete this low budget picture. With hopes to gain funding for his next film in 2024.

ARNOLD CARTER

Sarah Legg is an established emerging Boorloo filmmaker with experience in theatre, film, photography, freelance video and photo, film tutoring and teaching, academic writing and judging. Sarah wrote, directed, produced and acted in her first feature Cherubhead, which premiered at the WA Made Film Festival with four sold out screenings. The film was nominated Best Oceanic Film at the Septimius Awards, and won Best Director at the Black Hat FF in Europe. Sarah will present her new short film Impression at the upcoming WA Made Film Festival.

SARAH LEGG

RUBY SCHMIDT

Ruby Schmidt is a screen practitioner and producer with a background in factual and scripted content. Ruby completed a Bachelor of Laws in 2013 before spending two years as a Development Executive at Carbon Creative, working across a diverse slate of projects including League Nation Live (NITV), and Sesame Street Season 47 interstitials. Most recently Ruby was an Associate Producer on the AACTA nominated feature documentary Brock: Over the Top, and produced the documentary General Hercules.

HASSIB KUSHKAKI

Hassibullah Kushkaki was born and raised in Germany, grew up in Tucson, Arizona, spent most of his 20's in South Florida, and now finds himself premiering his first feature film, Rampage Electra, in Perth. Hassib's film interest began at 15 by being involved in community film projects as an actor. Being part of a film crew was the most incredible experience which served as an early inspiration in Hassib's life. Hassib has produced 28 short films. Hassib plans to continue making feature films here in Perth as he believes Perth to be the best place in the world to make films.

SURVIVORS OF WADJEMUP

D/W/P Glen Paul Stasiuk

Wadjemup or Rottneest Island is sacred to Aboriginal people. For almost one hundred years between 1838 and 1931 Wadjemup was a prison for at least 3,670 Aboriginal men and boys. More than 370 men never made it off the island and are now buried in unmarked graves on the island. They were fathers. They were sons. They were brothers. They were husbands. They were never to see their homelands and family again. Their spirits are part of this island, and for those that got off the island, their descendants now proudly tell their story.

NGALUK WAANGKINY

D/W Ian Wilkes and Poppy van Oorde-Grainger
P Poppy van Oorde-Grainger

Ngaluk Waangkiny follows the journey of a courageous group of Aboriginal Elders living on Whadjuk Noongar boodja as they fight for respect, recognition and acknowledgement from the City of Perth. Once banned from the city streets, these Elders now have a seat at the Council table and are making decisions that are quite literally changing the face of Boorloo - Perth. Co-written and directed by award-winning filmmaker Poppy van Oorde-Grainger and acclaimed Noongar artist Ian Wilkes, this short film is rich with archival vision, personal histories and moments of profound change proudly tell their story.

PREMIERE

FINDING FAMILY

D/W/P Ema Emilia dos Santos

Finding Family is the true story of an elder whose mother's family roots are from Antakarinyin gabi, near Oodnadatta, South Australia. Keith was born in Larrakia country (Darwin), in the Northern Territory, fostered and adopted in Darkinung country (Gosford), New South Wales, and now living and working in Nyoongar boitja (Perth), Western Australia. Keith finds his roots and place in this land and becomes family. Keith reflects on these movements through 'country', through the importance of finding identity, family and helping his community, and calls for a need to support the next generation as they find their sense of belonging.

PREMIERE

THE GREY LINE

D Scott Quayle P Kayah Wills and Amy Nyidi Smith

This is the story of Helen's struggle to find her place in the world. Taken from her parents during a time when Aboriginal children were removed from their families through Government mandated policy, Helen was raised by a middle-class family in the suburbs of Perth and believed she was their biological daughter until the age of 14. Despite being raised by a very loving foster family, Helen has never felt like she truly belonged. Not white, not black, she walks a very lonely grey line. This is her story of hurt, a longing to find her true self and to finally be accepted for who she is.

DOCUMENTARY

WEDNESDAY, 22 FEBRUARY

Pre-Event 6:00pm | Cinema Doors Open 6.25pm

Event Close 9.00pm Unclassified

Directed by Brodie Poole

Produced by Ruby Schmidt and Matthew Bate

For millennia the remote arid deserts of Western Australia lay undisturbed. On the 14th of June 1893 European prospectors discovered 'The Golden Mile' on what was the traditional lands of the local Indigenous people. In little over a hundred years a natural landscape has transformed into the industrial hellscape of Kalgoorlie-Boulder. As the incumbent Mayor of Kalgoorlie-Boulder, John Bowler, starts his campaign for a second term, independent prospector John 'General Hercules' Katahanas, decides to run against him on a ticket of anti-corruption. What starts out as a quirky David v Goliath political battle, unravels into a portrait of a man, a town and a country, sent mad by the timeless cycles of exploitation, racism and greed.

BEN YOUNG MASTERCLASS

WRITING & DIRECTING

SATURDAY, 25 FEBRUARY at THE GLOBE

A two hour masterclass with internationally-acclaimed writer and director, Ben Young

10.00am - 1.00pm

Don't miss this two hour masterclass on story run by internationally acclaimed writer/director Ben Young (Hounds of Love, Clickbait, Extinction, The Wilds).

Ben has recently completed post-production on his movie, Where All Light Tends to Go starring Billy Bob Thornton, Robin Wright, Hopper Penn, Emma Booth & Jackie Earl Hayley. The film will be distributed by Universal later this year.

The workshop will cover Ben's approach to structuring screenplays and how he applies that structure to visually realising the story when it comes time to shoot.

This is not a "how to" workshop, but more of an opportunity for aspiring writer and/or directors to hear what approach works for Ben and to ask any questions they may have for him.

The atmosphere will be casual, with questions encouraged and interaction encouraged.

Includes a half hour networking event with nibbles provided.

Drinks available to purchase at the bar.
